ON THE FRONT COVER: "Wild Ricing Moon" sculpture by internationally known sculptor and leading environmental artist, John David Mooney, represents the full rice-harvesting moon of late summer. The outstretched diagonal shaft moving through the circle represents a rice stem and also depicts the North Shore of Lake Superior and natural features of the region. "Wild Ricing Moon" credits the Ojibwe people for their custodial care of the environment and for the tradition of living in respect for and in harmony with nature. Dr. Holst earned a baccalaureate degree in Geology in 1973 and a Ph.D. in Geology in 1977, from the Twin Cities campus of the University of Minnesota. He taught at Hope College before coming to UMD, in the fall of 1979, to join the Department of Geology. While at UMD, he taught a variety of courses at the undergraduate and graduate levels, advised graduate students, co-advised a Ph.D. student and led many spring break geology field trips. He spent a sabbatical year as a Fulbright Senior Research Fellow in Bergen, Norway in 1985-86. He authored and co-authored numerous publications, on folds in rock and details of the folding process, as well as on tectonics of the Lake Superior region, among other topics. Dr. Holst was Principal Investigator on over half a million dollars in sponsored funding and Co-Principal Investigator for nearly three million. His research was supported by grants from the National Science Foundation, the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, the Minnesota Department of Natural Resources, Research Corporation and other agencies. He also worked locally, regionally and nationally in efforts to increase representation from under-represented groups in science and engineering fields. He has served in numerous administrative roles at UMD, including Associate Dean of the Swenson College of Science and Engineering from 1990-2009, Acting Dean in 2007, Director of the Center for Freshwater Research & Policy from 1998-2007, Director of Research Administration in 2008 and as interim and then permanent Associate Vice Chancellor for Graduate Education & Research from 2009 to the present. He has been active in committee service to the campus and the University of Minnesota system, including serving almost 25 years as an Undergraduate Research Opportunities Program coordinator. Nationally he served as a Councilor on the Council for Undergraduate Research and as a member of the Board of Governors for the National Conference on Undergraduate Research, including stints as Treasurer and Chair of the Board. Dr. Holst is retiring this year after 35 years at UMD.

UNIVERSITY HONORS

Committed to the liberal arts mission of UMD, University Honors provides some of our most motivated students the opportunity to push themselves academically and personally. University Honors students graduate by achieving the highest academic standards and by engaging deeply in a broad array of honors-level academic courses, cultural and leadership experiences, research and creative expression projects and meaningful work within the Duluth community. University Honors students commit hundreds of hours of work to expand their educational experience.

MACE BEARER

SHANNON DRYSDALE WALSH, Assistant Professor,
DEPARTMENT OF POLITICAL SCIENCE

Shannon Drysdale Walsh was awarded a McKnight Land-Grant Professorship for 2014-2016 by the University of Minnesota. The major purpose of the McKnight Land-Grant Professorship program is to strengthen the University's faculty for the future. The program is designed to advance the careers of the most promising junior faculty members who are at the beginning stages of their professional careers and who have the potential to make significant contributions to their departments and to their scholarly fields.

She holds a B.A. from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill and an M.A. and Ph.D. from the University of Notre Dame. Her primary field of research explains the development and variation in practices within specialized justice system institutions that address violence against women in Latin America. She also produces scholarship on the impacts of women's representation, explaining patterns of crime and victimization in Latin America and sex trafficking in the United States. Her teaching and research interests include comparative politics, Latin American Politics, women and politics and violence against women. She is engaged in service at the international level through the Bisan Solidarity Project, which works on issues of development and women's rights in rural Guatemala and at the local level on the Duluth Trafficking Task Force.

ACADEMIC ATTIRE

THE GOWN: The flowing gown comes from the 12th century, evolving from the dress of medieval guilds and the early religious orders. Today it is a symbol of democracy of scholarship. It is black for all degrees with standard sleeves for the bachelor's degree recipient, long, closed sleeves for the master's and standard or round full sleeves for the doctoral degree. For the doctoral degree, the front face of the gown has velvet panels and has three chevron bars of velvet across the sleeves in black or in the color distinctive of the faculty's discipline.

THE CAP: The black academic cap is a sign of freedom of scholarship and independence worn by all bachelor's and master's graduates. The term "mortar-board" is derived from the similar, four-sided mortar-board used by masons. A clue as to why Oxford faculty members chose the square cap is found in the 1564 poem. "Tis square like scholars and their books: The rest are round, but this is square to show that they more stable are." Doctoral graduates may wear a velvet tam.

THE TASSEL: Colors represent the academic discipline in each UMD school or college:

Labovitz School of Business & Economics

- drab (subdued orange) or copper

College of Education & Human Services Professions

- light blue, grey, gold, citron (yellow-green) or sage

School of Fine Arts

- brown, pink or white

College of Liberal Arts

- citron (yellow-green), gold, peacock (blue-green), purple or white

Swenson College of Science & Engineering

- gold or orange

Master's and Doctorates

- black

THE HOOD: Hoods indicate master's and doctoral degrees. The front colored band indicates the academic discipline, while the lining of the hood has a maroon chevron on a gold background to represent the University of Minnesota colors. University faculty members who hold a degree from another college or university wear the colors of their own school. The doctoral hood is longer than the master's and has a wider velvet band.

CEREMONIAL OBJECTS

THE MACE is carried by the faculty member leading the academic procession. It symbolizes leadership and authority. Use of a mace dates back to the 12th century when it was carried by kings' bodyguards.

Even in more modern times, the mace has maintained some of its ancient function of keeping order. The doorkeeper of the House of Representatives has a mace for use in formal House activities.

The mace carried in UMD's commencement procession has a glass sphere topped by the North Star, a symbol of the state of Minnesota. It also has a seal of the University set in the handle.

THE SEAL was adopted by the Board of Regents in 1939 as the corporate seal of the University of Minnesota. The Latin motto, Omnibus artibus commune vinculum, means "a common bond for all the arts." The lamp represents the metaphysical sciences, the telescope the physical sciences, the plow the industrial arts and the palette and brushes the fine arts.

THE UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA FLAG depicts the Seal of the Regents of the University of Minnesota.

STUDENT HONOR MEDALLIONS

HONOR MEDALLIONS are worn by candidates for the bachelor's degree who are in the top 15% of the graduating class within their school or college.

TOP 3% (SUMMA CUM LAUDE)

TOP 5% (MAGNA CUM LAUDE)

TOP 7% (CUM LAUDE)

For the purpose of the commencement program, honors are based upon the UMD grade point average at the end of the previously completed term. Honors will be conferred as indicated on those listed and others who meet final graduation requirements.

HONOR CORDS & STOLES

- BETA GAMMA SIGMA - International Honor Society; blue and gold cords
- OMICRON DELTA EPSILON - International Honor Society; blue and gold cords
- SOCIETY FOR HUMAN RESOURCE MANAGEMENT - white, baby blue and dark blue cords
- TAU BETA PI - National Engineering Honor Society; White stole with an orange "bent" on the front, the symbol of the society

NON-ACADEMIC RECOGNITION

MULTICULTURAL SYMBOLS

- American Indian students graduating today may wear any of several pieces of traditional American Indian regalia including an eagle feather, which is considered sacred and represents honesty, truth, courage and wisdom; beadwork representing their tribal, clan or individual cultural designs; or traditional clothing and regalia. Some may wear a yellow, black, white and red sash that represents many things including, but not limited to: the four races, four directions, four stages of life, four seasons and the four sacred plants.
- As part of their cultural heritage, some graduates may be wearing woven cloths with patterns and design, such as a Kente Cloth, representing their ethnicity or customs.
- International students wear a stole with multiple colors. The stole has a black background, red, gold & green stripes, and letters and symbols in gold. The Ashanti Stole symbol represents royalty, the diamond (neck area) represents wealth and riches and the key represents the key of success. "Class of 2014" is woven on both sides.

FOND DU LAC RESERVATION MA-IIN-GAN SINGERS

Drummers and singers from the Fond du Lac Band of Lake Superior Chippewa will perform an honor song featuring a traditional Ojibwe drum from the Fond du Lac Band. The singers are led by Mike Munnell, UMD's first American Indian studies graduate. The group performs at dozens of events in the upper Midwest each year and is often featured at UMD events. This drum is one of the first in Minnesota to welcome women singers to sing behind the male singers at the drum. This honor song offers sincere thanks and acknowledgment of accomplishments.

UMD SYMPHONIC WIND ENSEMBLE

The Symphonic Wind Ensemble is a select unit of approximately 50 music and non-music majors and is one of the premier ensembles in the UMD Department of Music. The ensemble regularly performs new compositions for the wind band medium and programs the most outstanding literature currently available. The group tours frequently and has appeared at the Minnesota Music Educators Association Conference and the College Band Directors National Association National Conference. Besides taking regional tours, the Symphonic Wind Ensemble has also toured internationally in Brazil. Recent guest conductors and clinicians have included: Frank Ticheli, Eric Whitacre, David Gillingham, John Mackey and Dario Sotelo.

ANTHEMS

THE NATIONAL ANTHEM

Oh, say can you see, by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming.
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, thru' the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly streaming?
And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof thru' the night that our flag was still there.
Oh, say does that star-spangled banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

HAIL! MINNESOTA

Minnesota, Hail to thee!
Hail to thee, our College dear!

Thy light shall ever be
A beacon bright and clear;

Thy sons and daughters true
Will proclaim thee near and far;

They will guard thy fame
And adore thy name;

Thou shalt be their Northern Star.

Like the stream that bends to sea,
Like the pine that seeks the blue!

Minnesota, still for thee
Sons and daughters strong and true;

From thy woods and waters fair
From thy prairies waving far,

At thy call they throng
With their shout and song.

Hailing thee their Northern Star.
